Measured will collect only the following high-level, aggregate statistics: Sophos products used by your organization*, technology asset inventory size and endpoint protection status for the last 90 days, security hygiene of protected endpoint technology assets, and compliance with sophos recommended security policies. The collected information will be exclusively used to determine eligibility and premium discounts if you choose to apply for cyber insurance.

Measured will not share your data with any third parties. You can review and request deletion of collected data at any time.

*Managed in Sophos Central only.

Our Mission

Measured and Sophos aim to reduce the impact of cyber threats on small and midsize companies in the U.S., enhancing true business resilience. We empower organizations to proactively defend against cyber threats and create a safer digital world.
